Montreal (Sept. 22, 2021) – Caribou Crossing Single Barrel Canadian Whisky brought home a Gold medal from the 2021 North American Bourbon & Whiskey Competition (NABWC). Two other Sazerac Canadian whiskies were also awarded Silver medals following this year’s double-blind tasting: Canadian Mist Blended Canadian Whisky and High River Canadian Blended Whisky.

Founded in 2014, the NABWC spirits are judged on a 100-point scale by styles and price categories. This was a record-breaking year for the competition with a 48% increase in entries.
