Los Vecinos del Campo Tobala Mezcal Named Best in Show at 2021 New York World Wine & Spirits Competition

Seven Sazerac Agave Spirits Receive Recognition

LOUISVILLE, KY (Nov. 11, 2021) Sazerac’s agave spirits, produced in close partnership with Casa San Matias in Mexico, fared notably well in the latest installment of the New York World Wine & Spirits Competition (NYWSC). Los Vecinos del Campo Tobala Mezcal earned Best in Show, Best of Class distinctions and a Double Gold medal. The remaining two expressions in the Los Vecinos line also claimed Gold and Silver medals. The Corazón family of Tequilas also received four medals. The collective list of honors received by the Los Vecinos and Corazón brands is as follows:

- Los Vecinos del Campo Tobala Mezcal – Double Gold, Best in Show, Best of Class: White Spirit
- Los Vecinos del Campo Espadin Mezcal – Gold
- Corazón de Agave Añejo Tequila – Gold
- Corazón de Agave Reposado Tequila – Silver
- Los Vecinos del Campo Ensamble No. 1 Mezcal – Silver
- Corazón de Agave Extra Añejo Tequila – Bronze
- Expresiones del Corazón Blanco Tequila – Bronze

The NYWSC competition is committed to three principles: legacy, integrity and experience. Predicated on these principles, the spirits are judged by the industry’s most trusted authorities. Results from the 2021 NYWSC can be viewed at <https://www.nywscomp.com/results>.

About Casa San Matías

With more than 130 years of experience, Casa San Matías is one of the oldest tequila distilleries in Mexico, and as a Mexican family owned distillery, is one of the few producers that still use traditional methods to produce its tequila. Casa San Matías was the first in the tequila industry to participate in the carbon footprint program promoted by the United Nations to combat global warming and is one of only four tequila companies using a biodigester in order to operate environmentally friendly. As the first tequila company to be certified as a “Great Place to Work” and recognized as part of “Top Companies” in Mexico, Casa San Matias is also certified for its gender equality. The distillery is known for brands like Pueblo Viejo, which is one of the top leading brands in Mexico, as well as other noted brands such as Corazón Tequila, Rey Sol and San Matías Gran Reserva.
