CHICAGO, IL (May 7, 2020) – Corazón was awarded a Double Gold medal for its Expresiones del Corazón Sazerac Rye Añejo at the 25th annual International Spirits Challenge. This award is only given to brands that saw exceptional success in the blind tasting assessment.

Additionally, four of the Sazerac Company's agave spirits were awarded Gold medals, including its three Los Vecinos del Campo Mezcal. All of these brands are produced in close partnership with Casa San Matias.

The Tasting Awards were held over 12 days of intense blind tastings by panels of more than 50 respected and experienced industry professionals. Samples were delivered to the judging area in flights of numbered tasting glasses to ensure the accuracy of the blind tasting. Each judge assessed the products according to age, region and variety, which is determined by the entrant and verified by the chairman.

This year, the International Spirits Challenge received more than 1,700 entries from nearly 70 countries around the globe.

“We are very pleased these spirits were recognized among the best internationally,” Agave Marketing Director Megan Hurtuk said. “Producing quality spirits is our top priority, so it is quite an honor that the judges assessed our spirits so highly. We owe thanks to our partners at Casa San Matias for their commitment to producing the highest quality spirits.”

Trophies for the winning spirits will be awarded at the International Spirits Challenge dinner on July 9 in London. Results from the 2019 International Spirits Challenge can be found at www.internationalspiritschallenge.com.
